

CRIMINAL JUSTICE & SECURITY

Thanks to popular television shows and national news media coverage, awareness and interest in criminal justice careers is growing. You could call it the “Law & Order effect.” Due in part to increased security after 9/11 and advances in technology, both law enforcement and private sector security continue to be two of the fastest growing fields of this decade. If you are passionate about problem solving and making a difference, criminal justice could be the major for you. As a criminal justice major at Pace University’s Dyson College of Arts and Sciences, you will leverage your outstanding analytical skills while feeding your natural curiosity. Our undergraduate Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice (CRJ) prepares students for work in law enforcement-related jobs and for graduate school in law, homeland security, public administration, criminal justice, psychology, social work and sociology. Our curriculum is responsive to the marketplace. You will graduate with the skill set and knowledge for a rewarding professional career.

We also offer an online executive master’s degree program, the Master of Arts in Management for Public Safety and Homeland Security Professionals. This program is offered in partnership with the Center for Homeland Defense and Security as part of the University and Agency Partnership Initiative (UAPI). The program combines theory and practice to prepare public/private-sector law enforcement, military, fire, public health, and other safety and security professionals to prevent and respond to crime, terrorist attacks, and safety hazards. The MA program is offered exclusively online, and offers incredible flexibility for working professionals.

BS IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Exciting and relevant coursework includes criminal investigation, criminal law, evidence and procedure, criminal profiling, integrity & ethics, police-community relations, community policing, terrorism prevention, probation, and corrections. Students are encouraged to minor in a subject area that will increase their marketability, such as computer science, a foreign language or psychology.

COMBINED DEGREE PROGRAM

CLASSROOM EXPERIENCE

Class sizes average from 40 students in 100-level courses to 25 for the 400-level courses, where student-faculty interaction becomes more intensive. CRJ students receive ongoing advisement from professors through in-class contact and during their extended office hours. Students can receive additional advisement by attending student sponsored events. CRJ faculty members are established leaders in their fields and bring practical experience into the classroom.

INTERNSHIPS

The Pace University Internship program, the largest in the New York Metropolitan Area, assists Pace University students in obtaining paid and unpaid professional internships related to their major. Each year more than 1,200 Pace University students work in internship positions with more than 300 partner companies. Criminal justice majors have many opportunities to intern with various local, state, and federal criminal justice agencies, such as with the U.S. Marshals Service, US Probation, Pretrial Services, local prosecutors, victim services and juvenile justice agencies. Students may earn academic credit for their internship, and many internships lead to jobs upon graduation.

THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SOCIETY

The Criminal Justice Society is a student-led club that provides resume-building professional experiences beyond the classroom and is found on both campuses. Members organize lectures, professional meetings, hands-on activities, and special events. Students involved with the Criminal Justice Society make new friends and develop a network of colleagues and professional connections.

CAREER PLANNING

Each year, our department hosts a Criminal Justice Career Day where students meet employers from more than 30 government agencies and gain valuable insight into career opportunities. This event gives our students first-hand information on hiring exams, and many have landed jobs with the FBI, Secret Service, DEA, and other branches of government under the Department of Homeland Security. Additionally, many of our alumni proudly serve as members of the NYPD, Westchester County police department, and beyond, including California, New Hampshire.
